

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints has a long history of providing humanitarian services in response to emergencies and natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, the Church has been challenged by its leaders to extend the same service to those in need during times other than emergencies; and

WHEREAS, the day of service is aimed at bringing relief to those struggling because of the economic downturn. Churches, civic organizations, humanitarian organizations, and government agencies will all pull together in collecting food, constructing houses, roofing houses, cleaning up school grounds, and performing other similar projects in their communities; and

WHEREAS, with the combination of the church's members, the members of other faiths, and community organizations, it is estimated that over 100,000 people will be serving in the communities.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jim Byard, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, join Al Kelley, Mayor of the City of Millbrook to proclaim Saturday, April 24, 2010 as the

CHURCH OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS DAY OF SERVICE

in Prattville.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 24th day of April 2010.

Mayor Jim Byard, Jr.