

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Captain Melvin Whitlow and his wife, Minister Shawnkeida have been citizens of Prattville for over three years; and

WHEREAS, Captain Whitlow served the United States Air Force Intelligence Division at Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery. He has been an active member of the Prattville community in numerous capacities, including serving as Deacon at Anointed Remnant International Ministries Church of God; and

WHEREAS, Minister Whitlow was a teacher at Pine Level Elementary School. She also served as Personnel Administrator of Anointed Remnant International Ministries. Her "Get it Done" skills, along with her compassion and love of people earned admiration from those around her; and

WHEREAS, the military personnel of Maxwell Air Force Base; the students of Pine Level Elementary School; the members of Anointed Remnant International Ministries Church of God, and the citizens of the City of Prattville are better because of the Whitlows touching their lives.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jim Byard, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 20, 2010 as the

WHITLOW FAMILY DAY

in Prattville, and wish them a healthy, happy, and prosperous future.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 20th day of June, 2010.

Mayor Jim Byard, Jr.