

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, in 1979, Mr. Algie Morgan accepted the Lord as his savior and began working diligently in the Father Son and Holy Ghost Church. He became a deacon, a member of the male chorus, and Sunday School Superintendent; and

WHEREAS, God called Algie to preach His Word under the guidance of Bishop John S. Baker. Under the leadership of Bishop Baker, he grew with wisdom in God's Word and Bishop Baker appointed Mr. Morgan to be Assistant Pastor; and

WHEREAS he always honored Bishop Baker and humbly followed God as his leader. in 1985, Bishop Baker appointed Mr. Morgan to be Pastor of the church. Pastor Morgan took on this great task with excitement and continued to work his full-time job with the City of Prattville; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Baker became ill and was placed in an assisted living facility. During this time, the responsibility of the ministry was placed on Pastor Morgan. He continued to honor his leader in everything he did; and

WHEREAS, in 1995 God led Pastor Morgan to build a new church. God's hand was on the plans throughout the process. The church was finished in 1996, and through God's blessings, the mortgage was paid in full and the church was debt-free.

WHEREAS, in 2002, at the age of 101, God called Bishop Baker home. He left a legacy of holiness. Pastor Morgan was determined to continue the stand for holiness, even when it was not popular. He grew in wisdom, maintained a holy life, and God called him to be the full-time Bishop; and

WHEREAS, in 2004, he stepped into the office of Bishop and continued to lead the church into holiness on the same foundation that Bishop Baker had begun. In 2004, Bishop Morgan established God's Kitchen to feed the needy and homeless in the community. God's Kitchen now provides up to 5,000 meals each year.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jim Byard, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby commend

for his distinguished service to the church and community, and highly praise him for the manner in which he has carried out his duties and responsibilities on this 25th year anniversary.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 21st day of June, 2010.

Mayor Jim Byard, Jr.
