

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is now traditionally observed throughout the USA; and

WHEREAS, trees throughout our city are major assets in our urban forest; and

WHEREAS, trees in our urban forest affect our biological ecology system, provide entertainment, and quality of life, as well as economically with paper and countless wood products; and

WHEREAS, trees properly planted and appropriately cared for contribute immeasurably to our wonderful city of which we are most proud.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, February 22, 2011 as in support of Shriners Hospitals for Children.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 22nd day of February 2011.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
