

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Kaiser Shelton, Jr. of Autauga County, first met Daisy Lee DeRamus of Prattville, at Autauga County Training School in 1955; and

WHEREAS, from that meeting, love grew and they were united in marriage on January 28, 1961 in the Probate Court Office, and began their life together; and moved to Clermont, Florida where they resided for three years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Shelton was drafted into the United States Army where he served two years active duty and six years reserve. Shortly after his draft, Mrs. Shelton relocated to their hometown of Prattville where they have lived in the Booth Community for the past fifty years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton became the proud parents of four daughters, eleven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, throughout their marriage, the Shelton's have devoted themselves to their church, their love of gardening, traveling and to their family.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby PROCLAIM, Friday, January 28, 2011 as

KAISER AND DAISY SHELTON DAY

in Prattville and wish for them many more happy, healthy, and productive years together with family and friends.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 26th day of August, 2011.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.