

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, volunteering one's time and resources has traditionally been, and continues to be, an elemental part of the essence and tradition of our country and essential to its spirit and vitality; and

WHEREAS, volunteerism is increasingly recognized as an important partner in government and industry in doing the work of the nation; and

WHEREAS, Laura Grace Henry has raised $1,500 for the Children's Miracle Network through a service project, conducted an Alabama Tornado Relief Food and Supplies Drive, made many visits to area nursing homes, participated in Project Bear Hugs to present teddy bears to the Family Sunshine Center and the Family Justice Center for children in domestic violence situations, and a food collection drive where 183 pounds of food and supplies were donated to the Autauga Interfaith Care Center; and

WHEREAS, Laura Grace Henry has used her talents on the piano to entertain and has also visited First Presbyterian Pre-School where she read books to the students and assisted them with crafts projects as part of Prattville Christian Academy's Spiritual Emphasis Day; and

WHEREAS, Laura Grace Henry has already performed over 100 community service hours in 2012 and been recognized by our President Barack Obama for her selfless works that have contributed greatly to our community and the State of Alabama; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, do hereby commend and offer congratulations to

for giving her time and energy to our community and those in need. Laura Grace has set a good example for those around her and is to be praised.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 20th day of July 2012.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
