

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, the Boy Scouts were organized in the United States on February 8, 1910, and the Cub Scouts on February 8, 1930; and

WHEREAS, scouting has played an important role in the lives of thousands of young men and is a wonderful program that teaches high ideals that are basic to American beliefs and freedoms; and

WHEREAS, while a member of Boy Scout Troop 25, Jerome R. O'Driscoll completed all requirements, earned many merit badges, and served his troop in a variety of leadership roles necessary to earn the Eagle Scout Award, the Boy Scouts' highest honor; and

WHEREAS, the Scouts, Leaders, and Board of Review Members of Boy Scout Troop 25 find Jerome R. O'Driscoll worthy of the rank of Eagle Scout.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville hereby commend

Jerome R. O'Driscoll

For his service, hard work, and determination in attaining this exceptional goal.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 20th day of May 2013.

Bill Gillespie Jr.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
