

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, the City of Prattville's seniors and disabled adults are valued members of society and it is our collective responsibility to ensure they live safely and with dignity; and

WHEREAS, abuse of older and disabled people is a tragedy inflicted on vulnerable adults, and an ever-increasing problem in today's society that crosses all socio-economic boundaries; and

WHEREAS, combating abuse of older and disabled people will help improve the quality of life for all seniors and disabled adults in this city and will allow seniors and disabled adults to continue to live as independently as possible and contribute to the life and vibrancy of the City of Prattville; and

WHEREAS, in this endeavor, the Autauga County Department of Human Resources works closely with partners, both public and private, at the state and local level to serve our seniors and disabled adults; and

WHEREAS, the City of Prattville and the Autauga County Department of Human Resources are committed to protect and provide for the needs of our older and disabled citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville hereby proclaim June 15, 2013

Elder Abuse Awareness Day

in Prattville, Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 15th day of June 2013.

Bill Gillespie Jr.
