

Proclamation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, service to others is a hallmark of the American character, and central to how we meet our challenges; and

WHEREAS, the nation's mayors are increasingly turning to national service and volunteerism as a cost-effective strategy to meet city needs; and

WHEREAS, national service expands economic opportunity by creating more sustainable, resilient communities and providing education, career skills, and leadership abilities for those who serve; and

WHEREAS, national service participants serve in more than 70,000 locations across the country, bolstering the civic, neighborhood, and faith-based organizations that are so vital to our economic and social well-being; and

WHEREAS, national service participants increase the impact of the organizations they serve with, both through their direct service and by recruiting and managing millions of additional volunteers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville hereby proclaim Tuesday, April 1, 2014

National Service Recognition Day

in Prattville, Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 1st day of April 2014.

Bill Gillespie Jr.
