

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Colonel Harold Howell was admitted to the Alabama State Bar on September 15, 1949; and

WHEREAS, after an extensive career in the United States Military, Colonel Howell began practicing law in 1975; and

WHEREAS, Colonel Howell has worked extensively with the Alabama Teen Challenge program and in doing so has helped countless individuals learn to live a Christ-filled life; and

WHEREAS, Colonel Howell and his late wife Junetta have five children and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Through all of his accomplishments Colonel Howell has remained humble and is most proud of his family.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville, Alabama, do hereby commend

Colonel Harold Howell

As he celebrates 65 years of admission to the Alabama State Bar and for his Christian leadership, commitment to his family, and continued service to the residents of Prattville.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 6th day of October 2014.

Bill Gillespie Jr.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
