

PROCLAMATION

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, George Harris was born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama on May 26, 1960. After graduating from Bessemer State Technical College with studies in the Machine Shop Program, he then attended the University of Montevallo. George graduated from the University of Alabama at Birmingham with a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice; and

WHEREAS, George Harris began working for the Alabama Department of Corrections at St. Clair Correctional Facility on September 11, 1989; and

WHEREAS, George took his valuable experience in the correctional system to a new position with the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles as a Probation and Parole Officer on January 7, 1994; and

WHEREAS, George excelled in his position and was promoted to Senior Probation and Parole Officer in the Clanton office on August 9, 2003 and was again promoted to District Manager on August 16, 2011 in the Prattville office; and

WHEREAS, George has dedicated 25 years, 9 months and 13 days of his life to the State of Alabama and the positive rehabilitation of those who have made mistakes in their lives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville do hereby Proclaim Wednesday, June 24, 2015, to be

George Harris Day

In Prattville, Alabama, and urge our citizens to recognize and commend Mr. George Harris for his significant contribution to the State of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and Seal of the City of Prattville on the 24th of June 2015.

Bill Gillespie, Jr.
Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.