

Commendation

By the Mayor of Prattville, Alabama

WHEREAS, Terry Wayne Tenney was hired by the City of Prattville June 2, 1980 and began his career with the Sanitation Department; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Tenney was transferred to the City of Prattville's Police Department as the Assistant Animal Control Officer April 18, 1983 and was promoted to Animal Control Officer August 19, 1984; and

WHEREAS, in June of 1996 his title was changed to Dog Warden; and

WHEREAS, he has assisted animal owners, area veterinarians, Prattville/Autauga Humane Shelter and the general public with positivity and professionalism throughout his tenure with the City of Prattville; and

WHEREAS, Terry Tenney ran the City's Dog Pound until the formation of the Prattville/Autauga Human Society's new shelter in 2002. He has worked closely with the PAHS in the early stages, setting up the process and making sure the facilities were in the best shape possible. Terry was commended for his great attitude and rapport with the public in his assistance with fundraisers for the Humane Shelter. Terry's love for animals and dedication to his career has shown through in his job performance and care for the animals; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Tenney has worked closely with Autauga County and their Dog Warden to make sure that the county animal control needs were handled as well as those of the city. He has experienced a lot of changes and growth over his 36 year career with the City of Prattville.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Gillespie, Jr., Mayor of the City of Prattville do hereby commend for his dedication and commitment to our great City and wish him the best of luck in retirement.

Given Under My Hand and the Seal of the City of Prattville on the 21st day of February 2017.

Bill Gillespie Jr.

Mayor Bill Gillespie, Jr.
