If applicable, initial on the line and complete any required information. If not applicable, write 'N/A' on the line:

_____ If your business will have any equipment stored outside, it must be enclosed behind a fence*. Attach to this application a sketch of your property, existing structures (i.e. house), fence, and where equipment will be stored.

On lots larger than one acre, materials or equipment may be located in rear or side yards, at least fifty feet (50') from property line, without being enclosed.*

_____ At least one resident of the home must be engaged in the home occupation and no more than one non-resident may be engaged or employed in the business activity. Provide a list of the names of the people participating in the business, and indicate whether they are a resident or non-resident.

_____ If your business will require additional parking for business related vehicles, clients coming to your house, etc, attach to this application a sketch of your property, existing structures (i.e. house), and driveway. Indicate where the required residential property is located, and where the additional necessary parking will be located to accommodate your business (not in the front yard).

_____ If your business will involve clients visiting your home (e.g. music instruction, tutoring, consulting, repair services, occasional mail order pickup, etc), provide a detailed report of how many per day you anticipate and what days and hours they will be allowed to come to your home*. This number may be reduced by the Board of Adjustment.

no more than two clients may be on the premises at any time, and no more than ten clients visiting the home on any day*

_____ If your business will involve the maintenance or repair of small engines, it shall be limited to those used in lawn mowers, trimmers, and similar lawn equipment, with no more than two cylinders.

_____ If your business will involve the storage of gasoline, diesel fuel, gunpowder, or other flammable or combustible materials, or will involve gunsmithing, firearm sales, or other activities involving weapons or other potentially dangerous devices, additional information may need to be provided to the Fire Department or Police Department for further review.
